TOM DASCHLE AND BOB DOLE,
Democratic Leader and Republican Leader, Feb. 27, 1996.

MEASURE PLACED ON THE CALENDAR—H.R. 497

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I understand there is a bill due for its second reading.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A bill (H.R. 497) to create the National Gambling Impact and Policy Commission.

Mr. LOTT. I object to further proceedings on this matter at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The bill will be placed on the calendar.

ORDERS FOR TUESDAY, MARCH 12, 1996

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until the hour of 9:30 a.m., Tuesday, March 12; further, that immediately following the prayer, the Journal of proceedings be deemed approved to date, no resolutions come over under the rule, the call of the calendar be dispensed with, the morning hour be deemed to have expired, and the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day. I further ask unanimous consent that the Senate begin a period for the transaction of morning business until the hour of 10 a.m. with Senators permitted to speak for up to 10 minutes each with the following exception: Senator FEINSTEIN for 15 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I further ask that at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, the Senate resume consideration of the omnibus appropriations bill, H.R. 3019; further, that the Senate recess from the hours of 12:30 to 2:15 for the weekly policy conferences to meet.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

BALANCED BUDGET DOWNPAYMENT ACT, II

Mr. LOTT. I might say, Mr. President, I had hoped we would be able to make more progress today. I know the distinguished chairman of the Appropriations Committee was here at the appointed hour and made an opening statement on this appropriations bill. I do know that there have been a couple of amendments that have been laid down. We are going to have to make real progress on this legislation tomorrow because we are facing a deadline on the continuing resolution this coming Friday. So if we are going to avoid that problem, we are going to have to either complete the amendments and complete final passage on this omnibus appropriations bill or take some other action to avoid the threat by President Clinton last week that we would have a shutdown. So I urge my colleagues and the leadership to work together to get an agreement on a list of amendments, how those amendments will be brought forward; that we have some sort of reasonable limit on the number of amendments that are offered so we can complete this legislation hopefully by tomorrow night or certainly sometime early in the day on Wednesday so we can allow this bill to go to conference. There will have to be a conference between the two bodies, and I am sure that will take some time, too.

PROGRAM

Mr. LOTT. For the information of all Senators, the Senate will resume consideration of the continuing resolution at 10 a.m. on Tuesday. Additional amendments are expected to be offered, and it is still hoped that we may complete action during tomorrow's session.

Under a previous order, there are two consecutive cloture votes beginning at
